99-2-1	OST-98-4706	ESSENTIAL AIR SERVICE AT GALLUP, NEW MEXICO UNDER 49 U.S.C. 41731 et seq. :	2-5-99
--------	-------------	--	--------

The Department is soliciting proposals from air carriers interested in providing essential air service at Gallup, New Mexico. (See Appendix A for a map of the service area.) The Department will also require Mesa Airlines, Inc., d/b/a America West Express (Mesa), to continue serving Gallup for a 30-day period, through March 5, 1999, or until replacement service is secured, whichever occurs first.
Served: February 5, 1999

99-2-2	OST-98-4744 (R-1 thru R-9) OST-98-4338	The Department approves and grants antitrust immunity to the IATA Agreement, subject, where applicable, to conditions previously imposed which consists of resolutions and recommended practices (R.P.'s) affecting passenger services. Most of the changes further refine existing ticket formats and ticketing procedures to facilitate the introduction of the euro; align absorption of the certain passenger expenses for travel wholly within Western Africa with actions already taken in Tariff Coordination Conference 2; and assigns additional form codes for automated miscellaneous charges orders (MCO's). These proposals involve non-substantive changes, essentially of a technical, editorial or administrative nature, to existing approved resolutions and recommended	2-2-99

99-2-3	OST-98-3957	APPLICATION OF SUN JET INTERNATIONAL, INC. TO RESUME OPERATIONS PURSUANT TO 14 CFR 204.7: The Department tentatively finds that Sun Jet International, Inc. (Sun Jet) remains a U.S. citizen and is fit, willing, and able to resume its interstate charter air transportation operations of persons, property and mail, subject to conditions. Therefore, interested persons are directed to show cause why the Department should not issue an order making final the tentative findings and conclusions and allow Sun Jet International, Inc. to resume its interstate charter air transportation operations of person, property, and mail. Such objections should be filed with the Department no later than 10 days after the service date of this order; answers to the objections shall be filed no later than 5 days thereafter.
